

The Property Tax-School Funding Connection

Series Introduction and Wisconsin

Daphne Kenyon, Moderator

Lincoln Institute of Land Policy

Julie Underwood

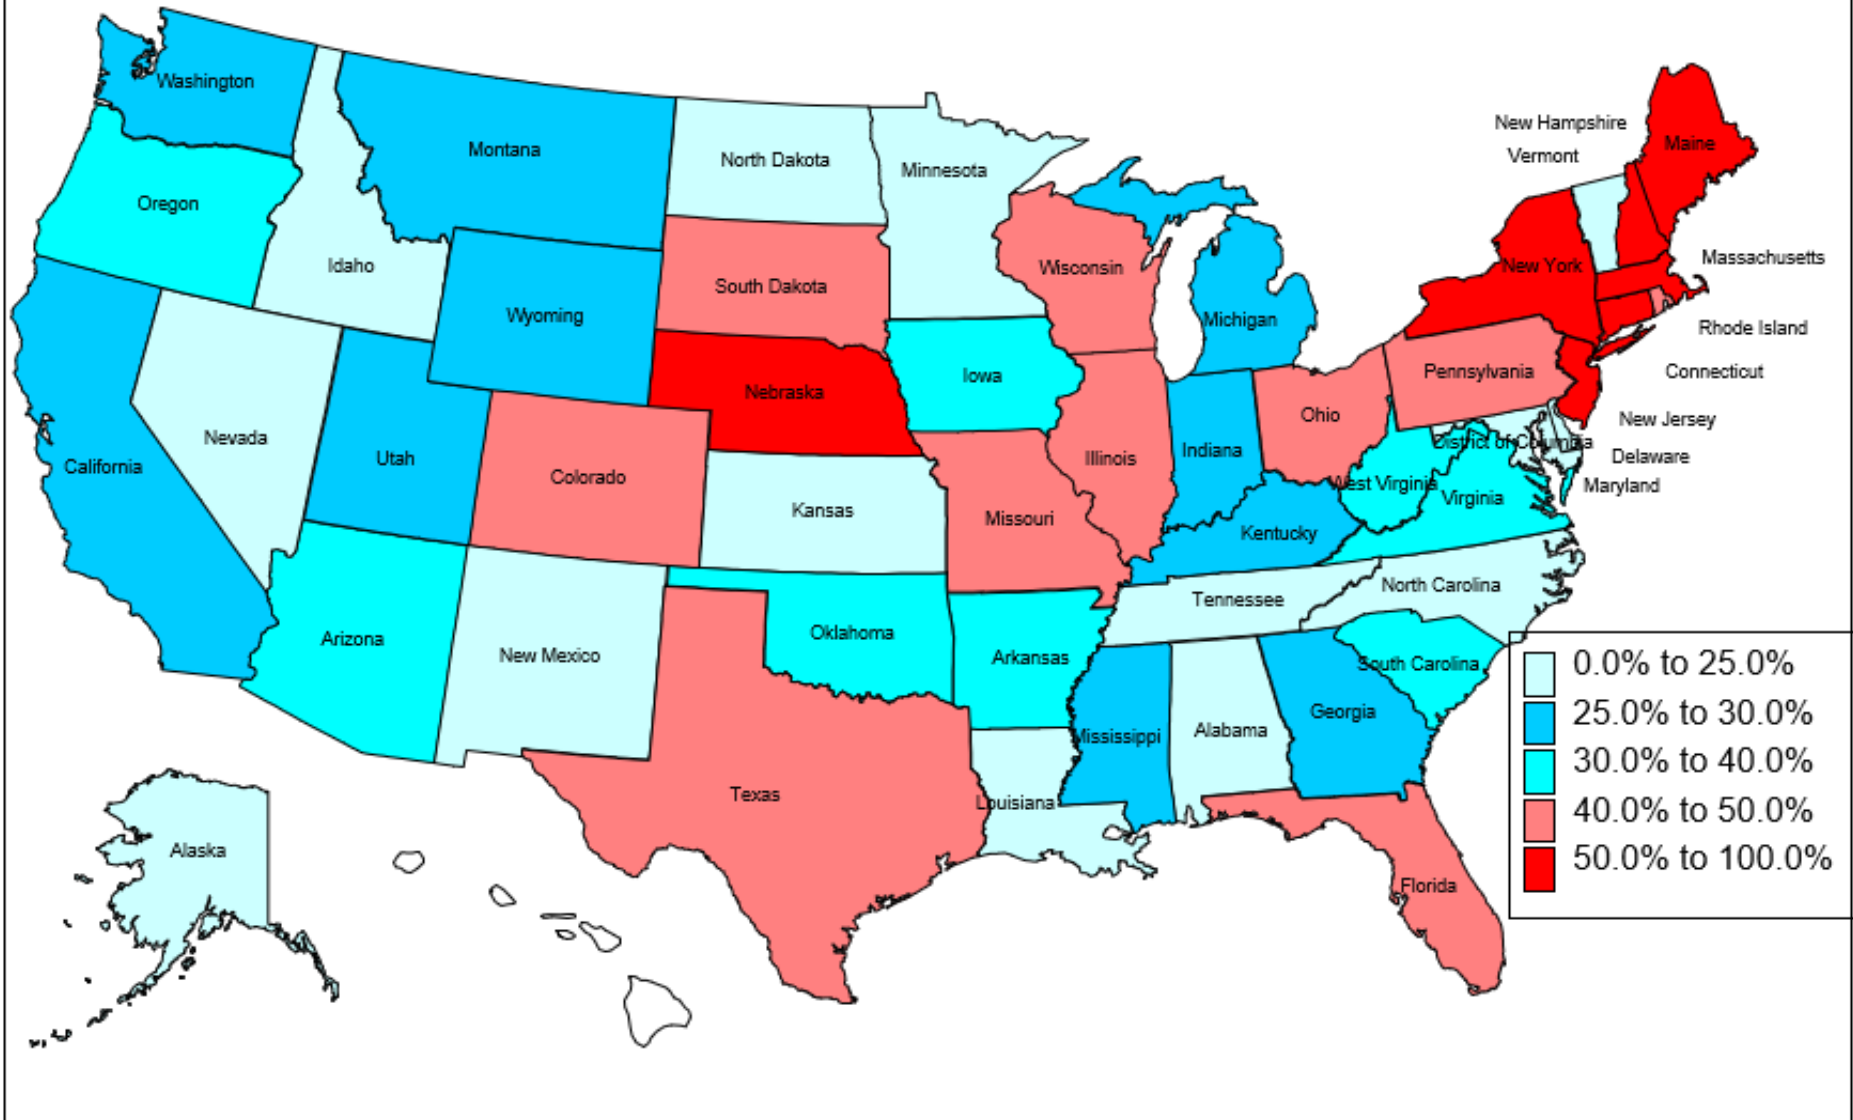

University of Wisconsin-Madison

May 20, 2020

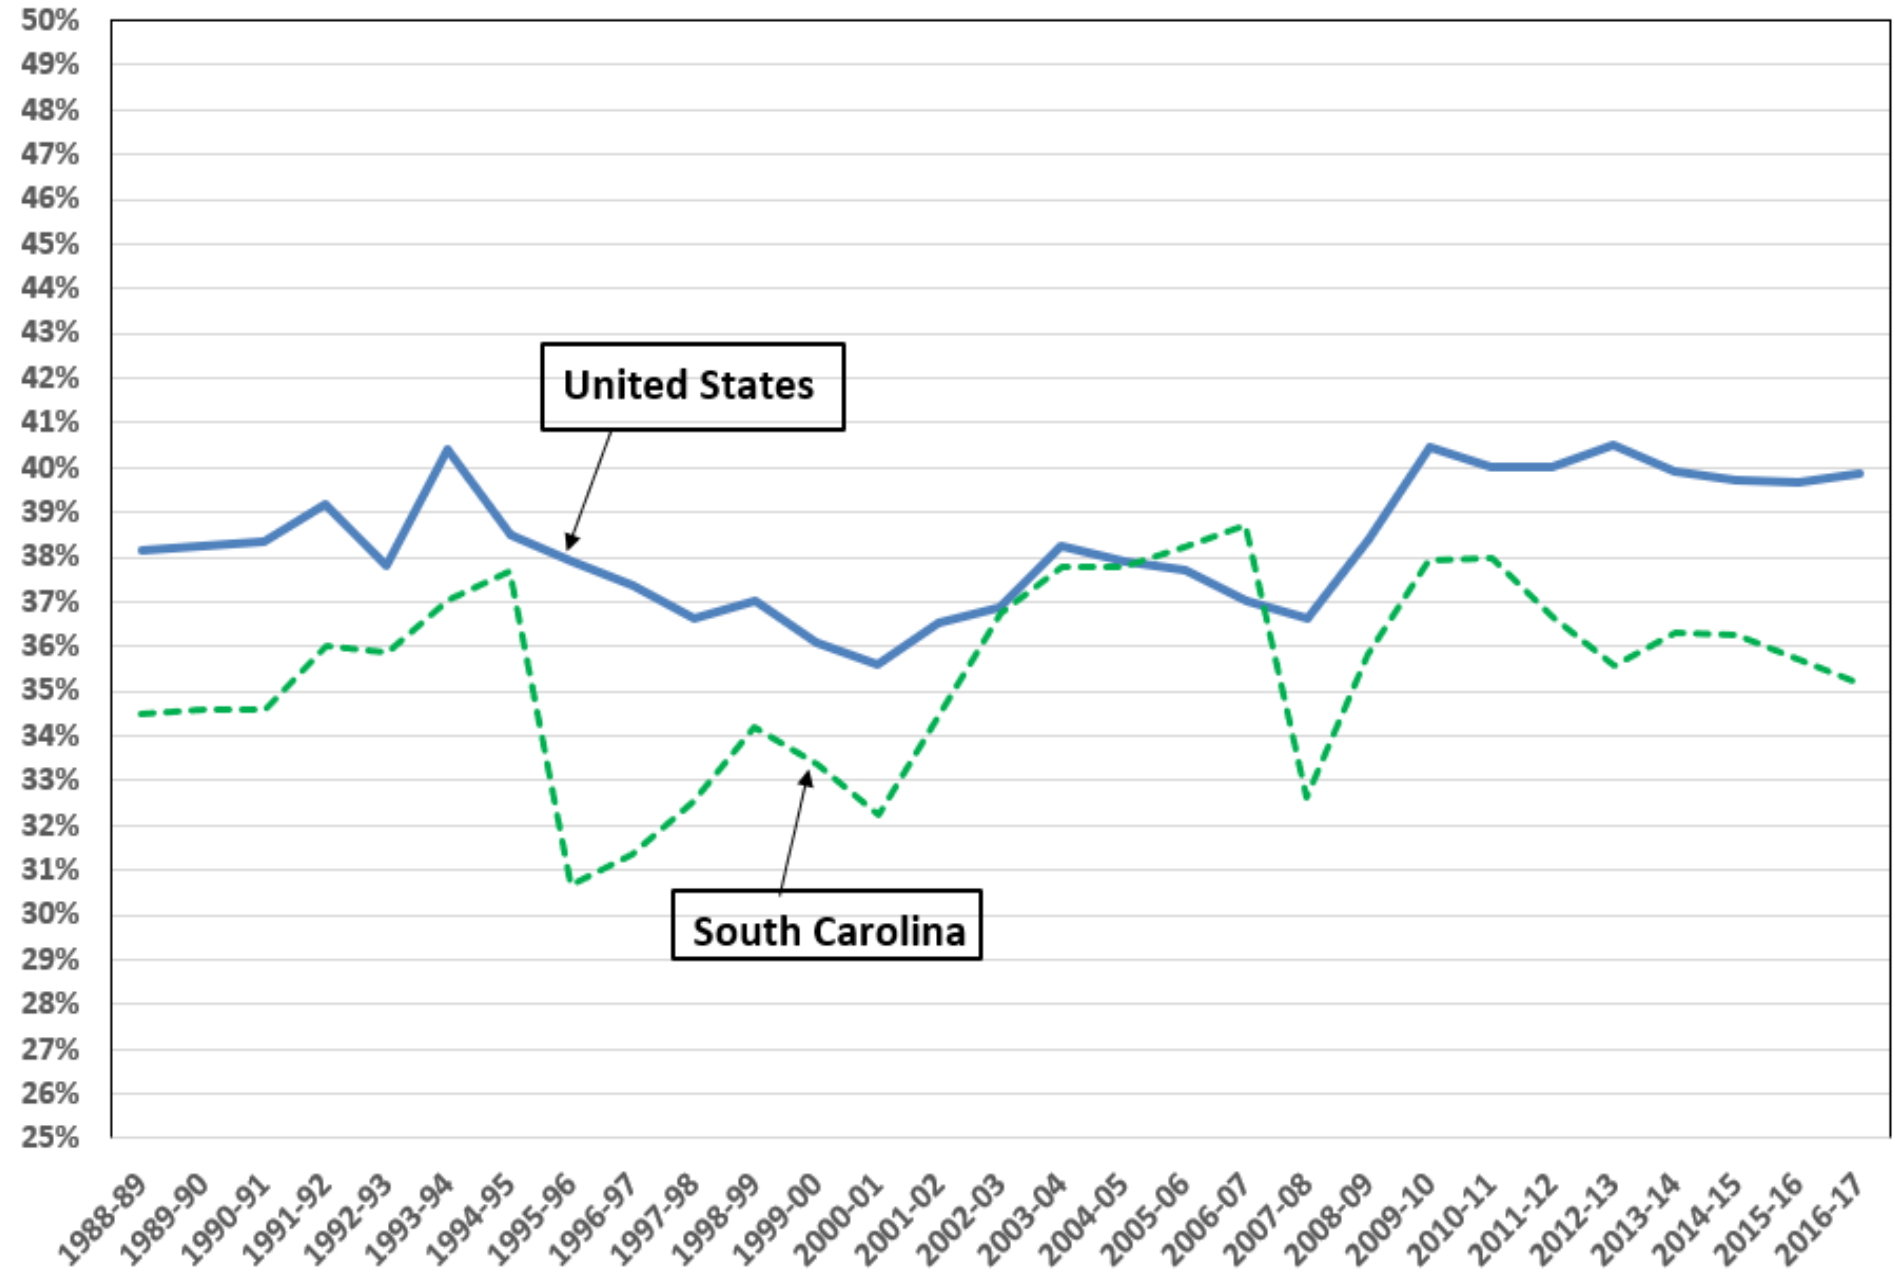

Property Tax Revenue as a % of Total Public Education Revenues United States, 1989-90 to 2016-17

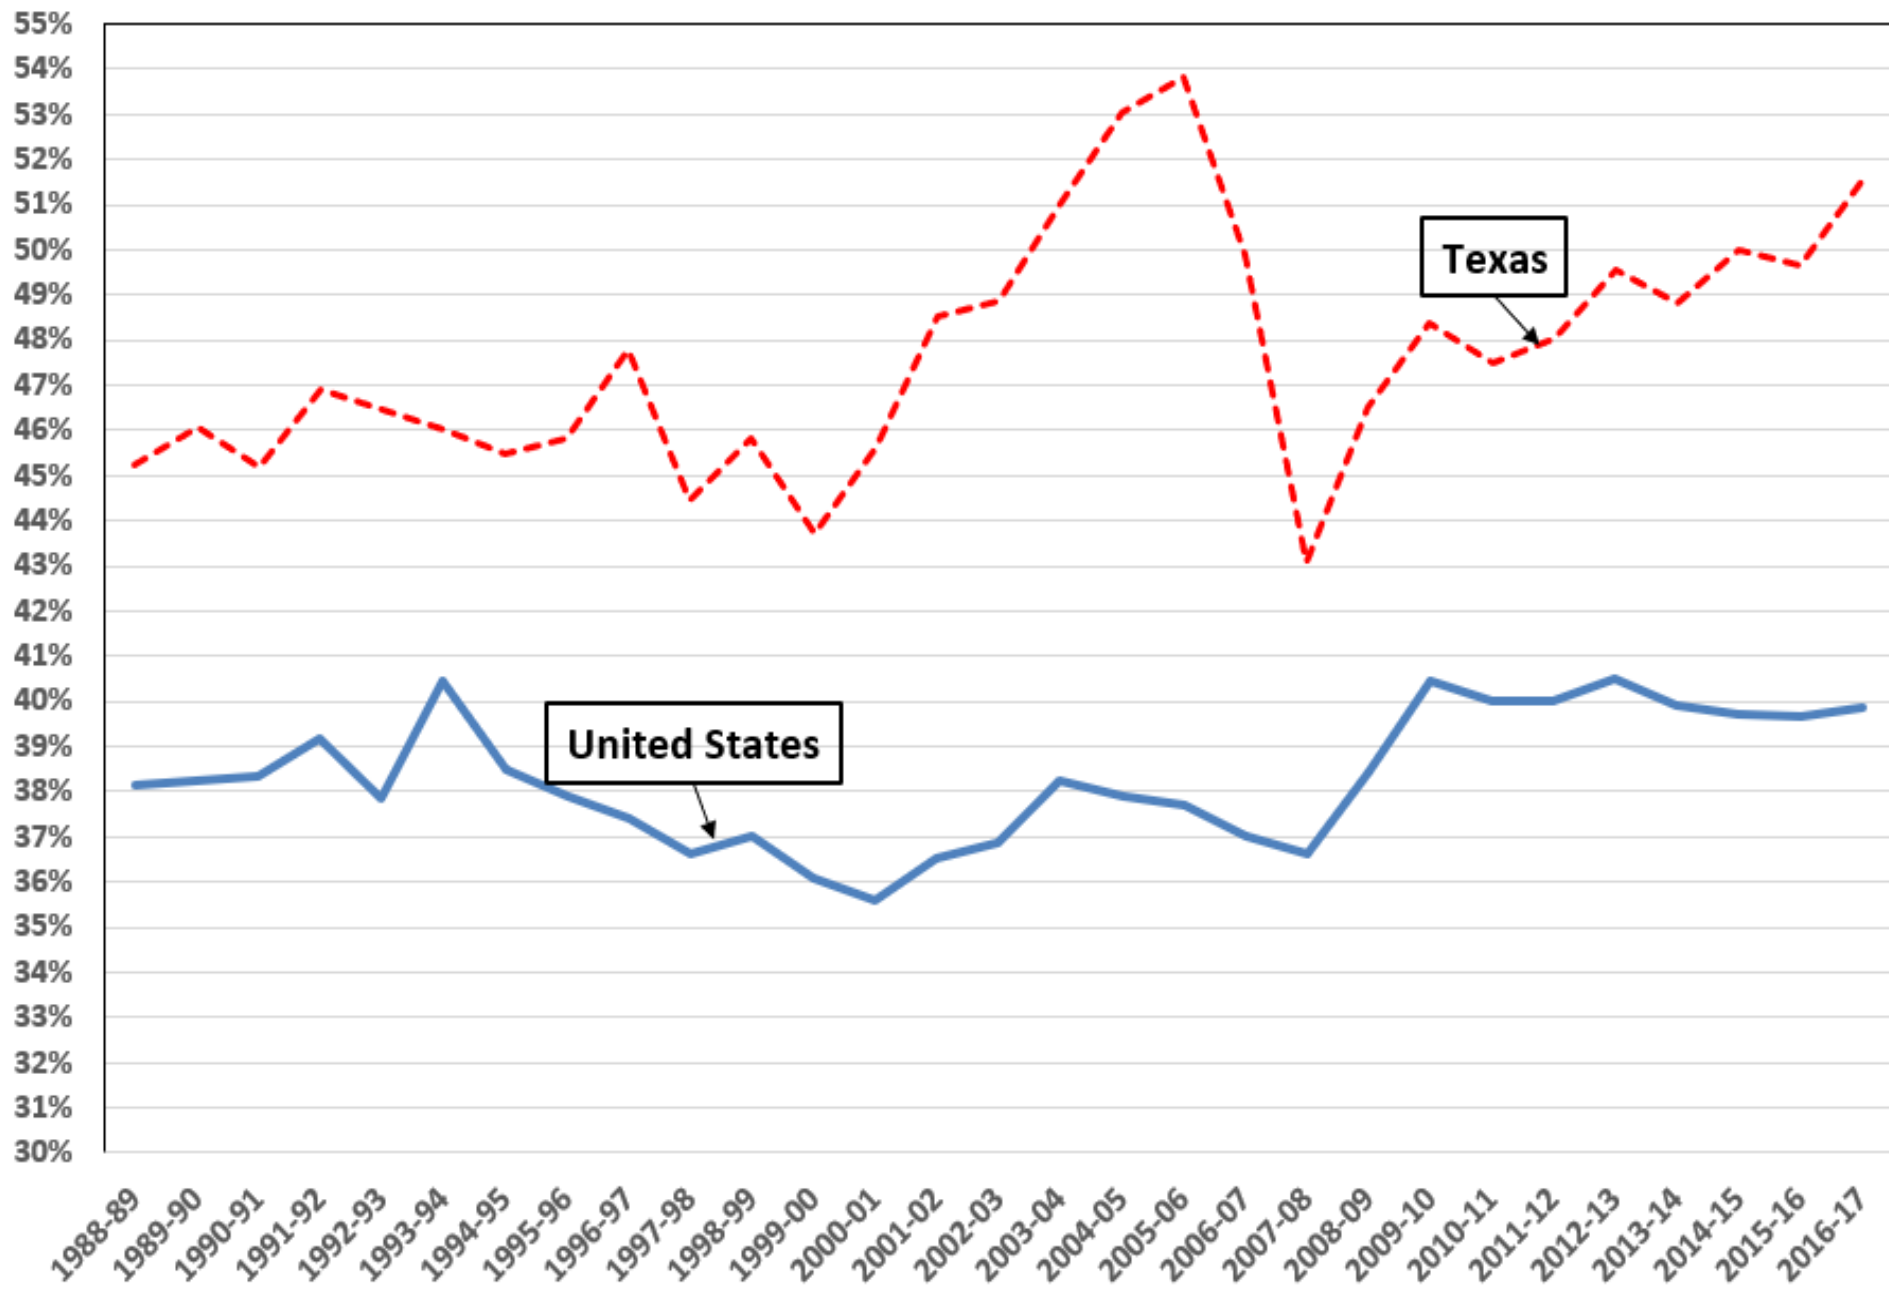

Local Property Tax as a Share of Public School Revenues, 2016-17

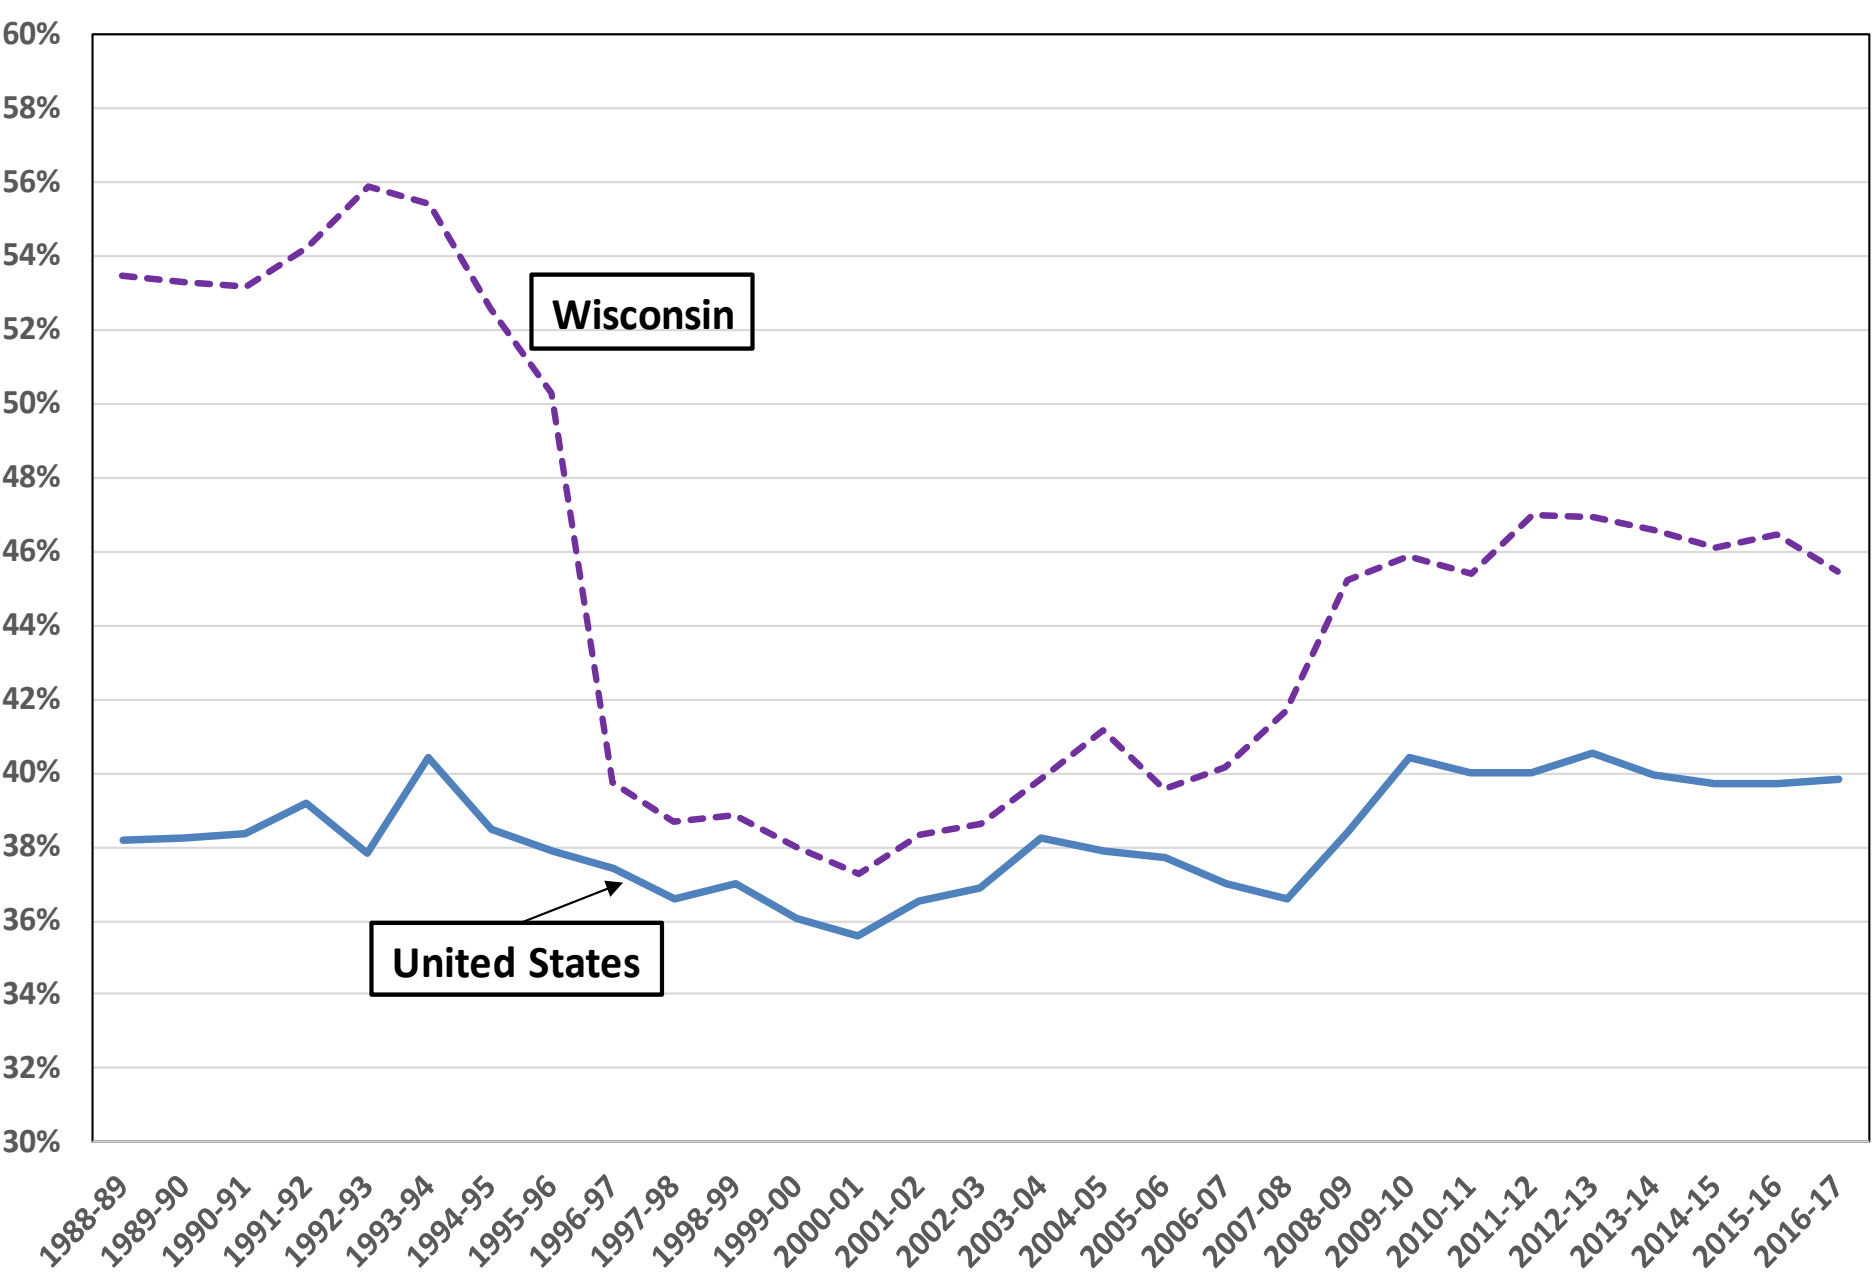

Property Tax Revenue as a % of Total Public Education Revenues United States and South Carolina

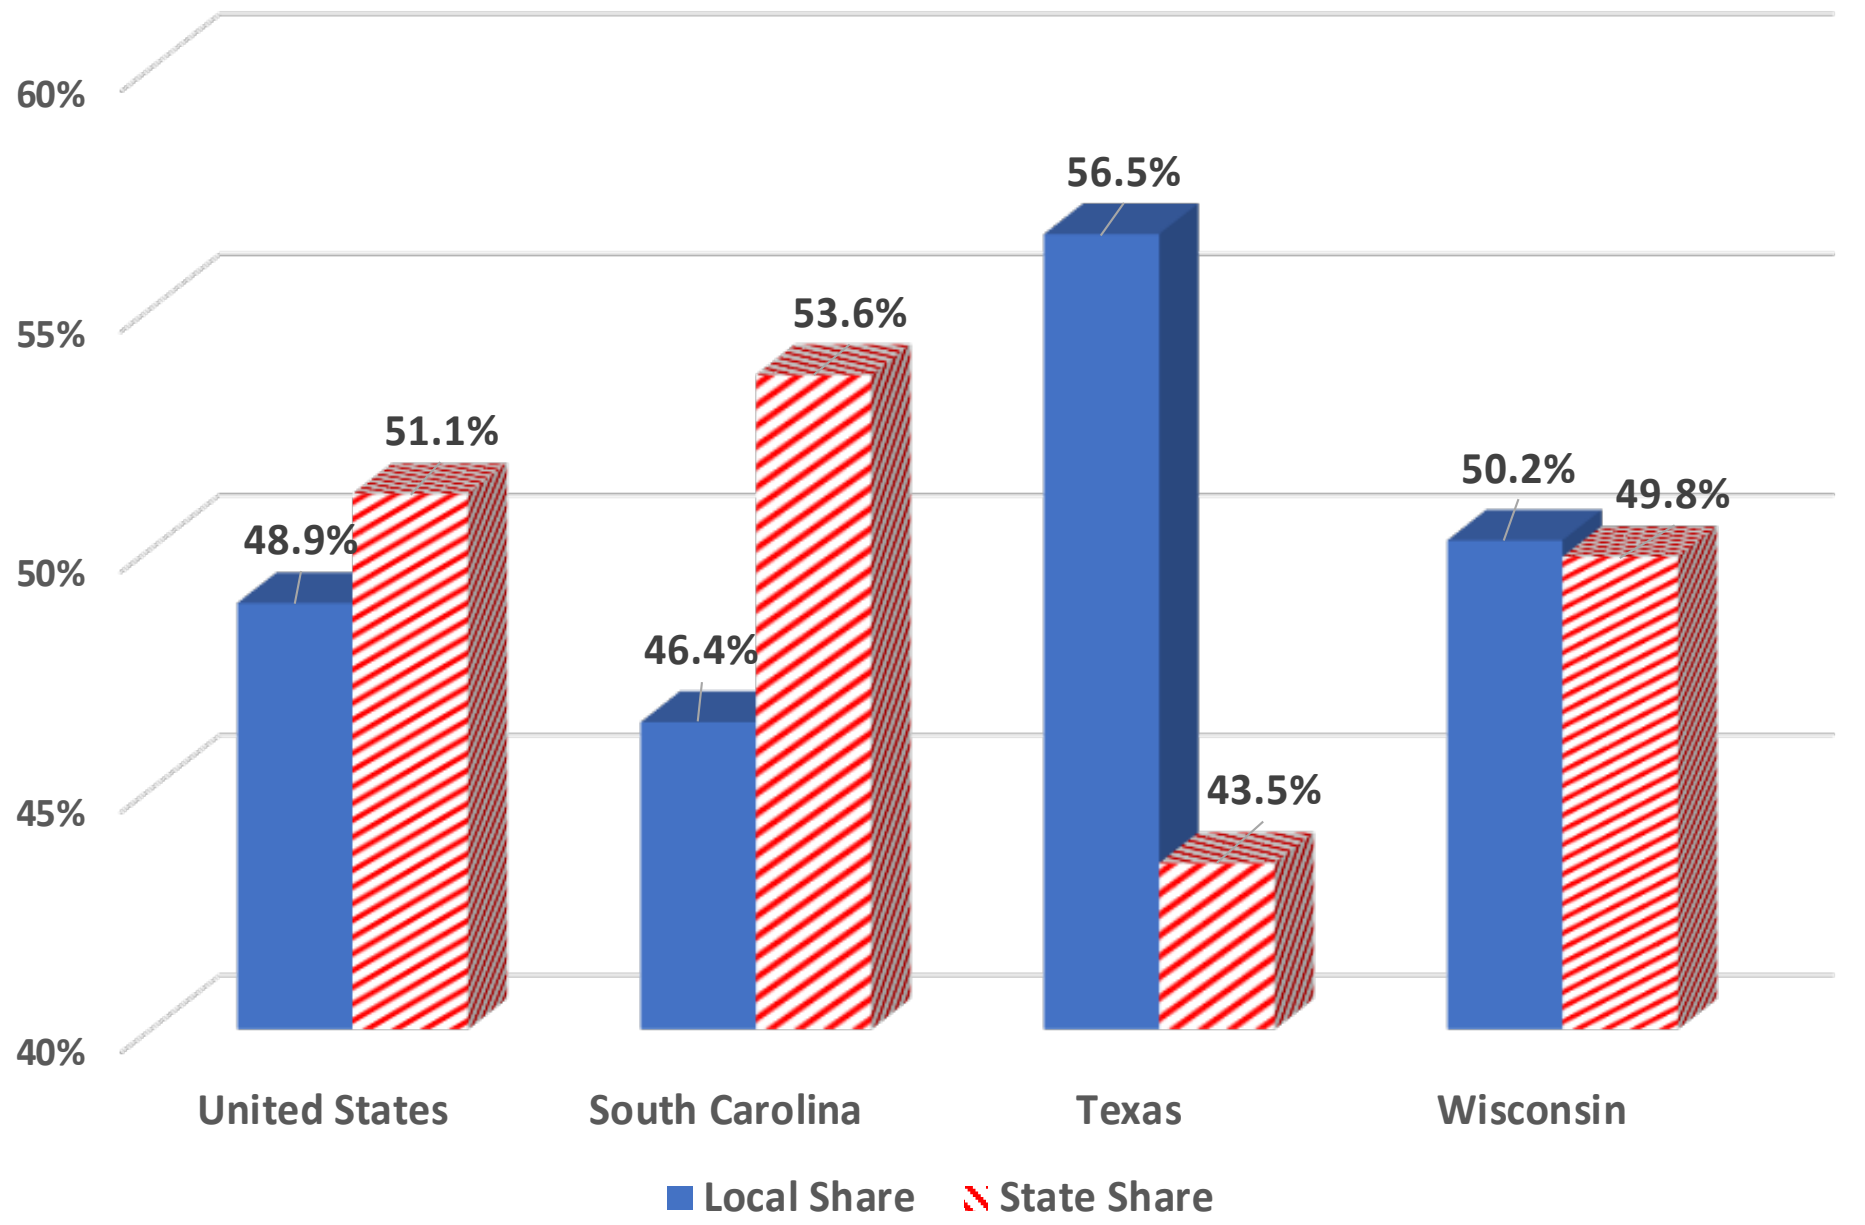

Property Tax Revenue as a % of Total Public Education Revenues United States and Texas

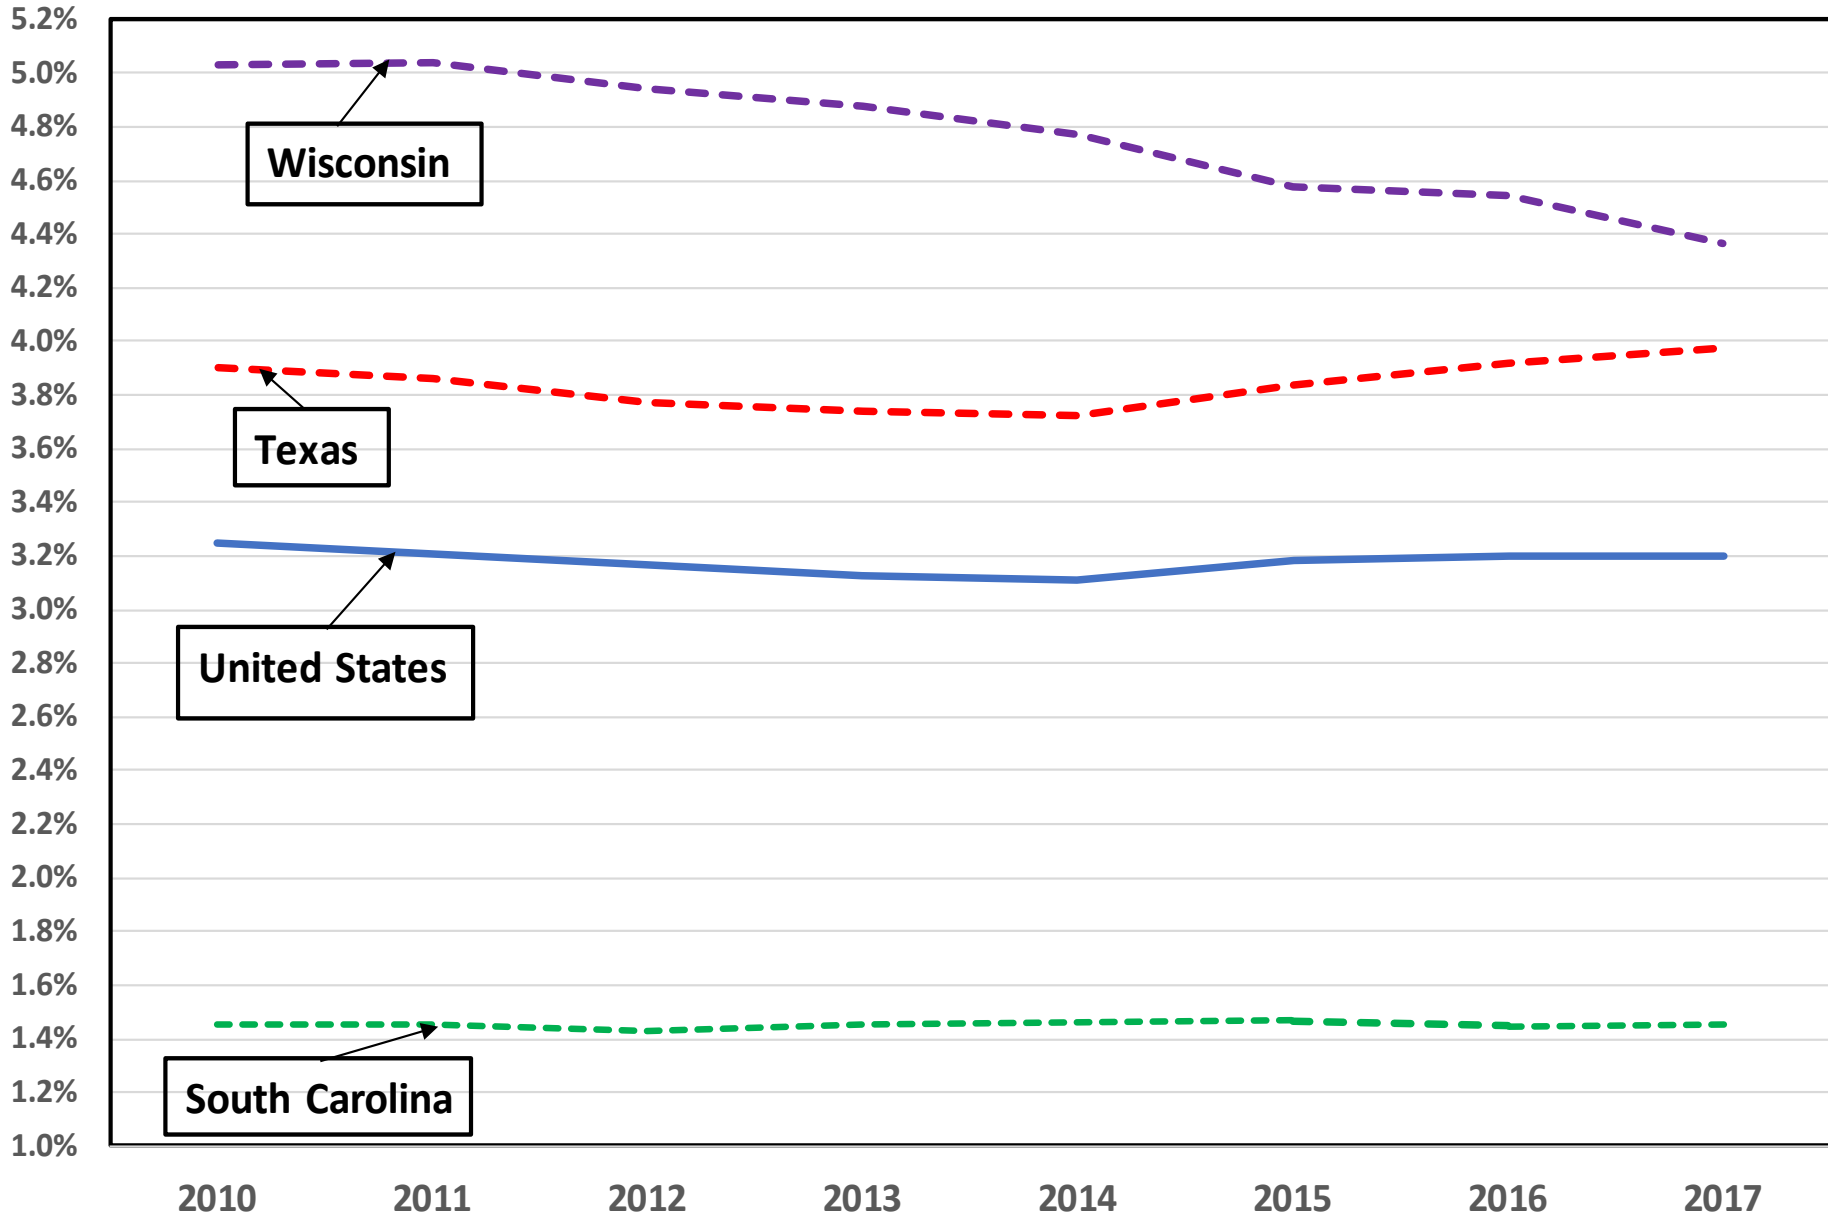

Property Tax Revenue as a % of Total Public Education Revenues United States and Wisconsin

Local and State Shares of State and Local Public Education Revenue Fiscal Year 2017

Median Real Estate Tax Paid by Homeowners as a % of Median Household Income of Homeowners, 2010 to 2017

Source: U.S. Census Bureau, 1-Year American Community Surveys, 2010 to 2017

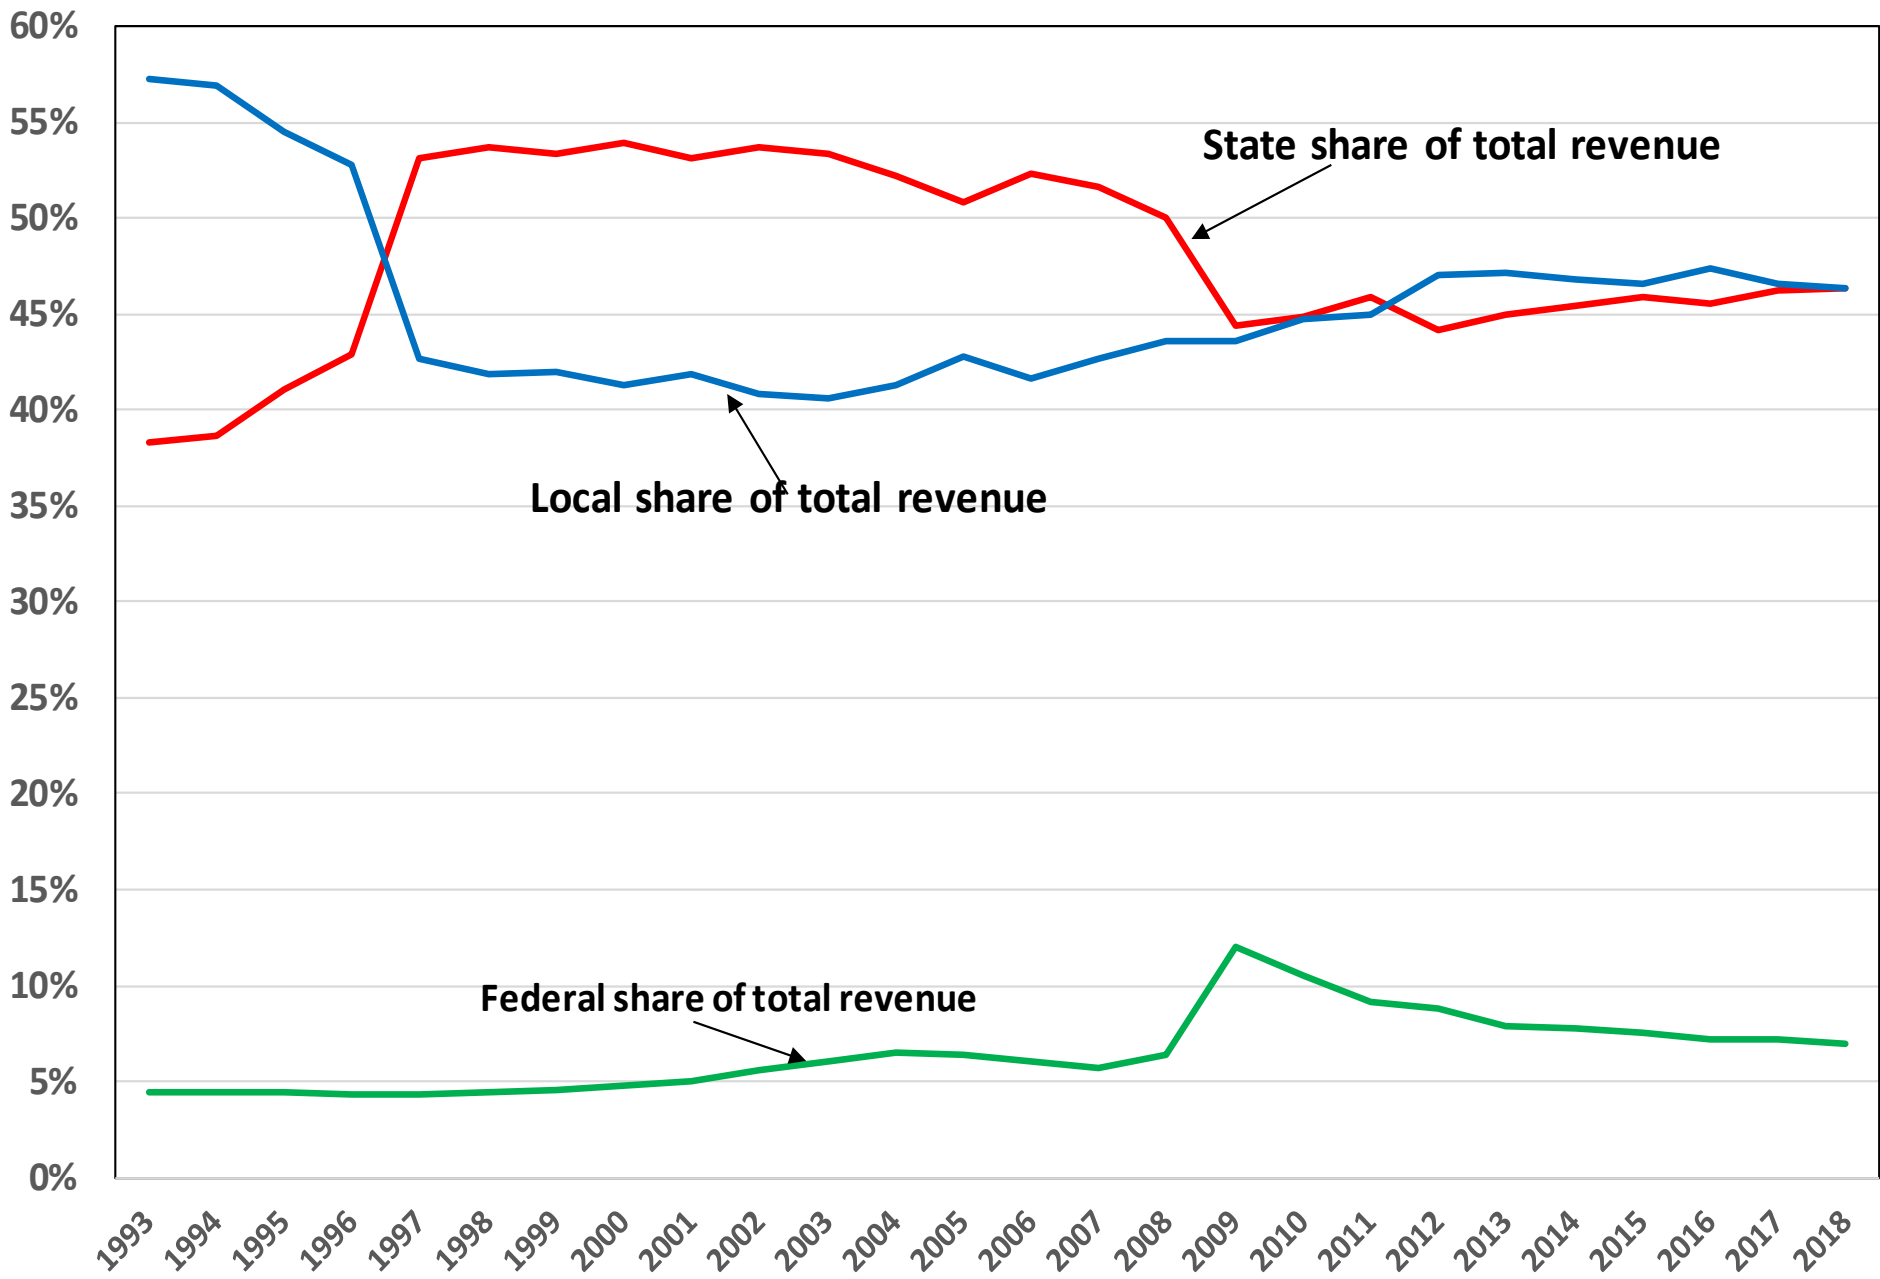

Wisconsin Case Study

Julie Underwood

University of Wisconsin-Madison

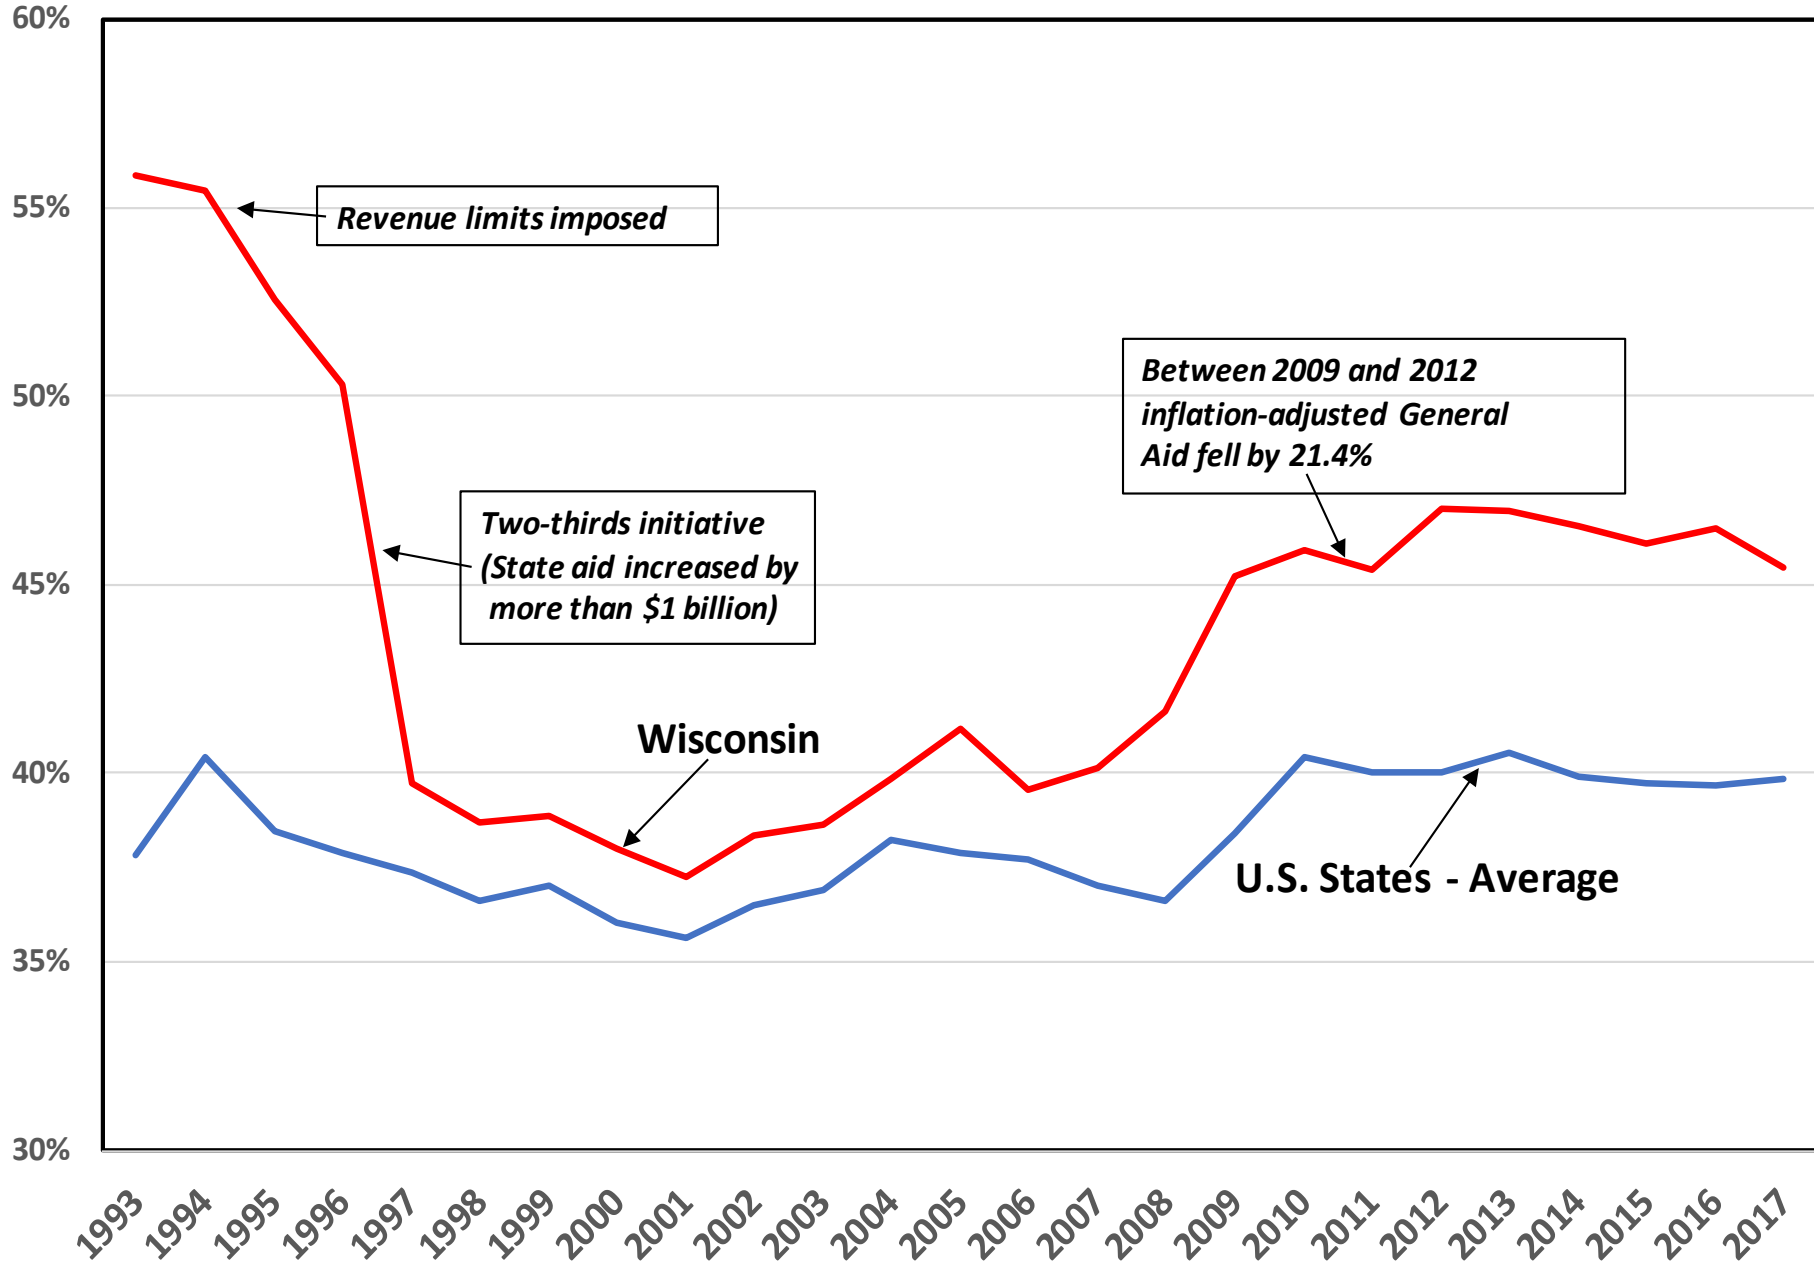

Share of School Revenue from State, Local, and Federal Governments

Wisconsin Public Schools, 1993-2018

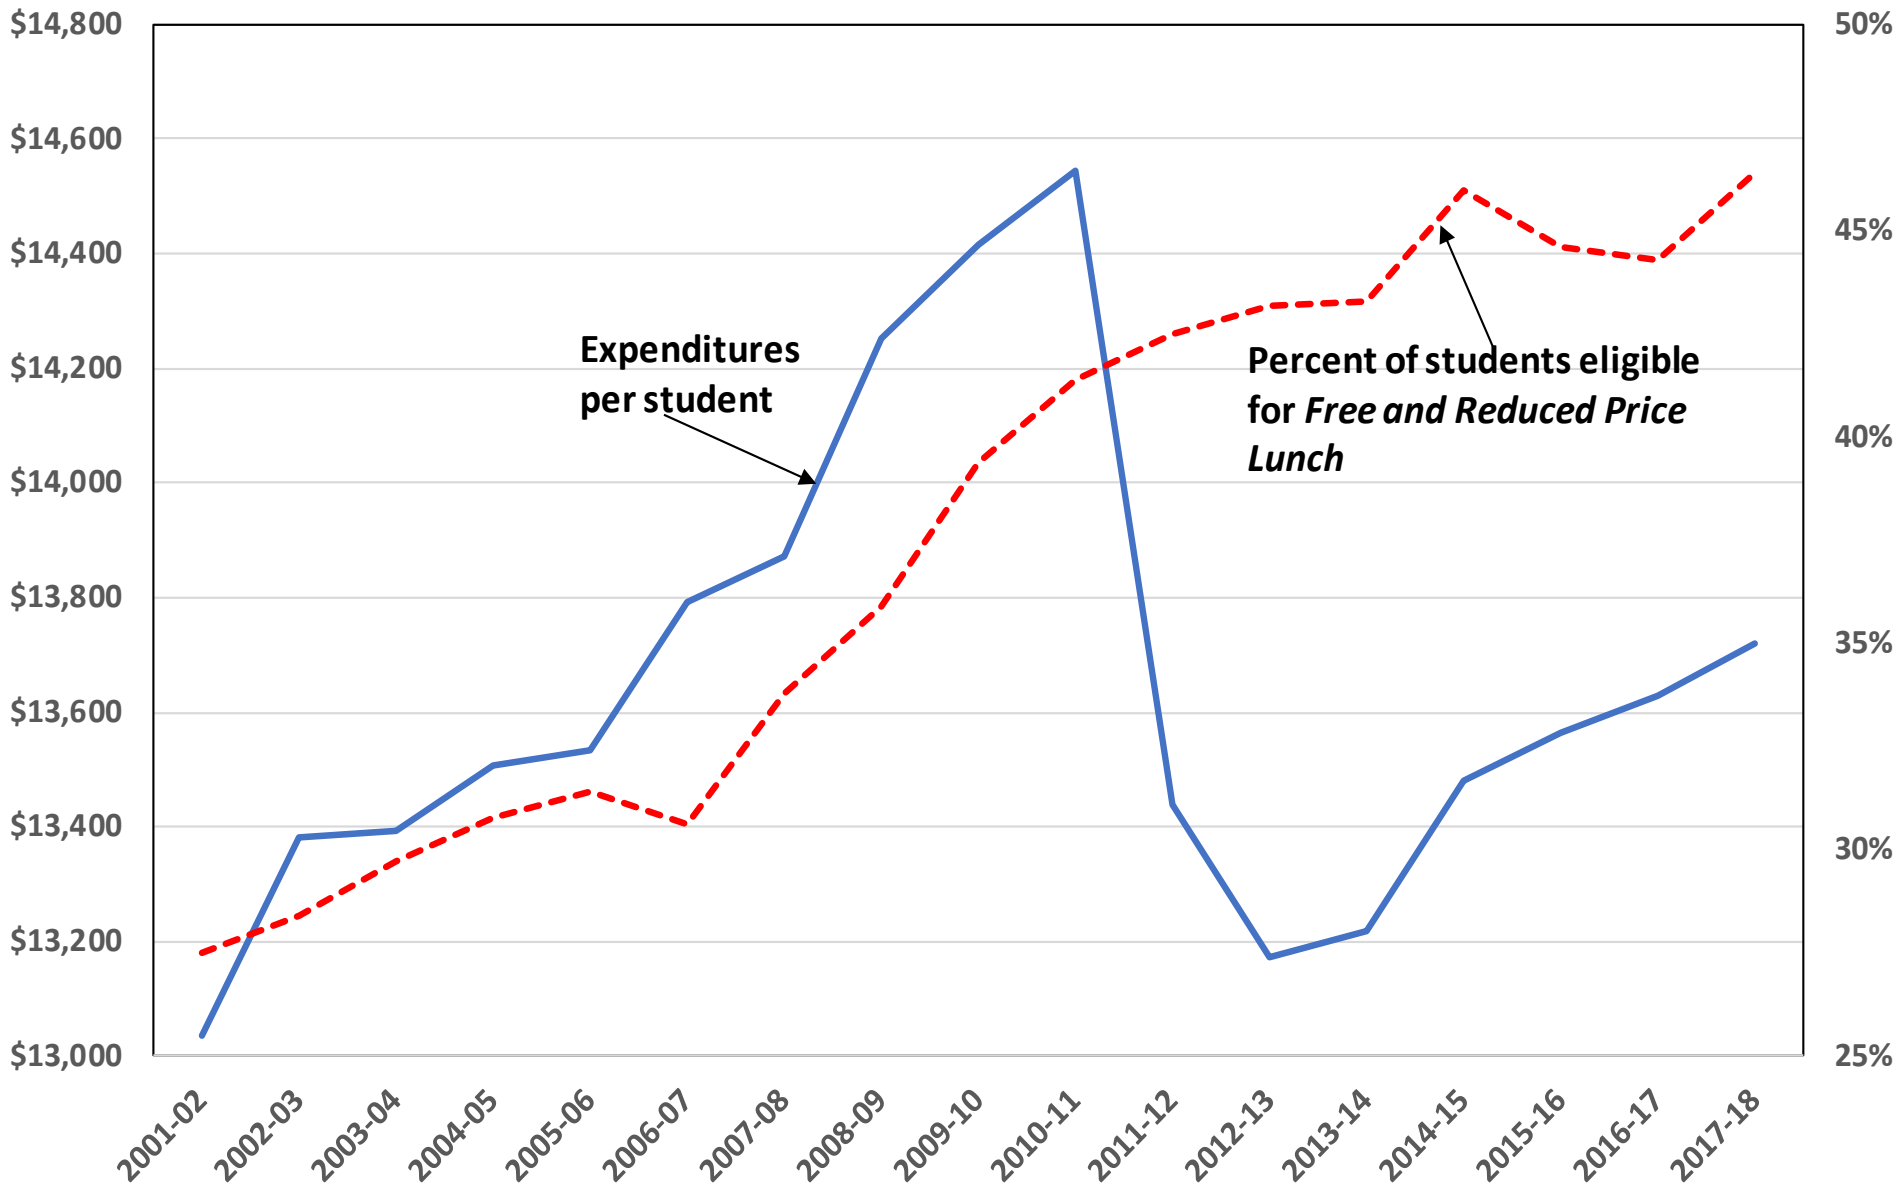

Property Taxes as a Share of State and Local Public School Revenues

Wisconsin Public Schools, 1993-2017

Source: Calculations based on data from the National Center for Education Statistics, National Public Education Financial Survey.

Real Expenditures per Student (2018 $s) and % of Students Eligible for Federal Free and Reduced Price Lunch Program Wisconsin Public Schools, 2001-02 to 2017-18

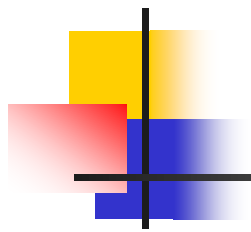

Milwaukee Parental Choice Program (MPCP)

Fiscal Year	Number of MPCP Schools	Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Students	MPCP FTE Student Payment	MPCP Total State Aid Payments/ Program Cost
1990-91	6	300	$2,446	$733,800
1998-99	83	5,761	$4,894	$28,194,300
2008-09	123	19,428	$6,607	$127,061,900
2010-11	100	20,256	$6,442	$129,183,100
2017-18	125	27,670	$7,530/$8,176	$213,300,000
2018-19	129	28,100	$7,754/$8,400	$221,800,000
2019-20 (estimated)	130	28,147	$8,046/$8,692	$230,100,000

Choice Program Expansion 2012-13 through 2018-19 (animation slide)

Thank you.
Questions?